Webb scrambles but not far enough.

Elch applies pressure to the Andrean quarterback.

All the dusty and hot summer days of practice paid off and the gridders were certainly up for the VALPO game, winning 28-7. Kester scored twice while Powell and Cooper each crossed the goal line once with Krystevski's four conversions.

FROEBEL cashed in on one of the two Wallace fumbles setting up the only touchdown in the game, beating us 6-0. Coach Herbert's men hit paydirt twice, but both times the touchdowns were nullified because of illegal procedure. Kester rushed for 143 yards out from the total 250 rushing yards the Hornets were able to acquire.

HORACE MANN had an alert defense which forced the Hornets to their first two game losing streak since 1961. Wallace rushed for 184 yards with Kester getting 95. Mann's spirit was up, and the breaks just didn't come. We lost to the Horsemen 21-7 with Vitalone scoring our lone touchdown.

Routing EMERSON 41-0 made our homecoming crowd even more festive and cheerful. Our Hornet hero for this game was senior halfback, Mike Powell, who scored three touchdowns, two of them on long break-away runs. Seniors, Webb and Kester and junior, Cooper, also hit home while Krystevski kicked five points.

HOBART Brickies won their first game in seven years against the Hornets, 34-14. The one bright spot for the Hornets was their 62 yard march for a touchdown which found Powell rushing in from the 3 yard line. Webb finally went across from the 1 yard line as our game ended disappointingly for Hornet fans.

ANDREAN issued to us our second shutout of the season with a score of 19-0. Our defense was tricked by the illusive Andrean air attack. The 59'ers were in high spirits, and that only magnified our defeated low spirits.

Fumble!!!

Webb hands off to Kester on a power play.

However, team spirits soared with a 22-6 win over the TOLLESTON Raiders. The Hornet defense bore a close resemblance to last year's undefeated team. Buha, getting his first start as quarterback, scored from the 1 yard line; Vitalone and Kester both scored from the 2 yard line. Kester also piled up 140 rushing yardage as the Hornets had one of their better days.

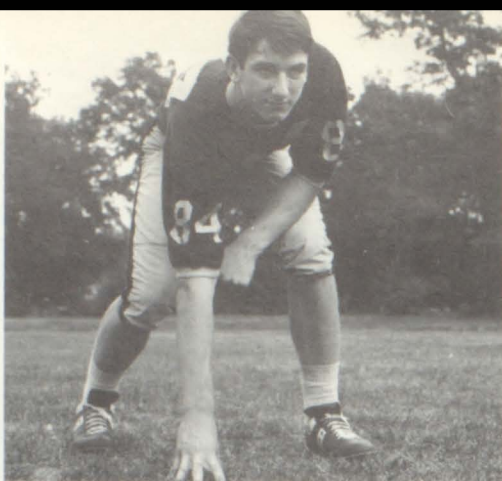

By downing ROOSEVELT 7-0, the Hornets were able to win their fourth game of the season. The game, played in a steady torrent of rain, saw Kester score the lone touchdown, and Krystevski boot his 14th extra point of the season. "Hammer" Milich was singled out for turning out fine defensive play throughout the game.

All set to meet CROWN POINT on the gridiron in a fierce battle, both teams were let down when the game was cancelled because of a deluge of rain.

Unbeaten Season For Reserves

The highlight of the reserve football team's season was the achievement of the city championship. The record consisted of seven wins and no losses. The sound of battle could be heard over the Lew Wallace practice field nearly every Saturday morning, driving the reserves to victory.

Under the supervision of Coach Rykovich, junior and sophomore boys learned new plays and techniques.

All coaches agreed that this season produced excellent material to be used in the future.

Frosh Shape Future Goals

Freshman football set goals for all who participated. Starting at the bottom they learned the fundamentals and plays of the great spectator sport, football. To feel a love for the game and strive for a position as a star player on the varsity team was stressed by their coach, Mike Jennings. To freshmen the saying "It doesn't matter if you win or loose but how you play the game" was a law.

Captain Eric Horbovetz led the Hornets to a Northwest Conference record of 7-8 and a year record of 9-9. Girgenti, Stochel, Laisure, Hanaway, and Horbovetz spurred the team to eighth place in the Conference meet. The Harriers also placed eleven out of the twenty teams competing in the sectional meet.

Running in four invitational meets, the team placed fourth at Highland, ninth at Andrean, twentieth at Horbart, and twenty-fourth at La Porte. Tony Girgenti finished fourth in the city meet.

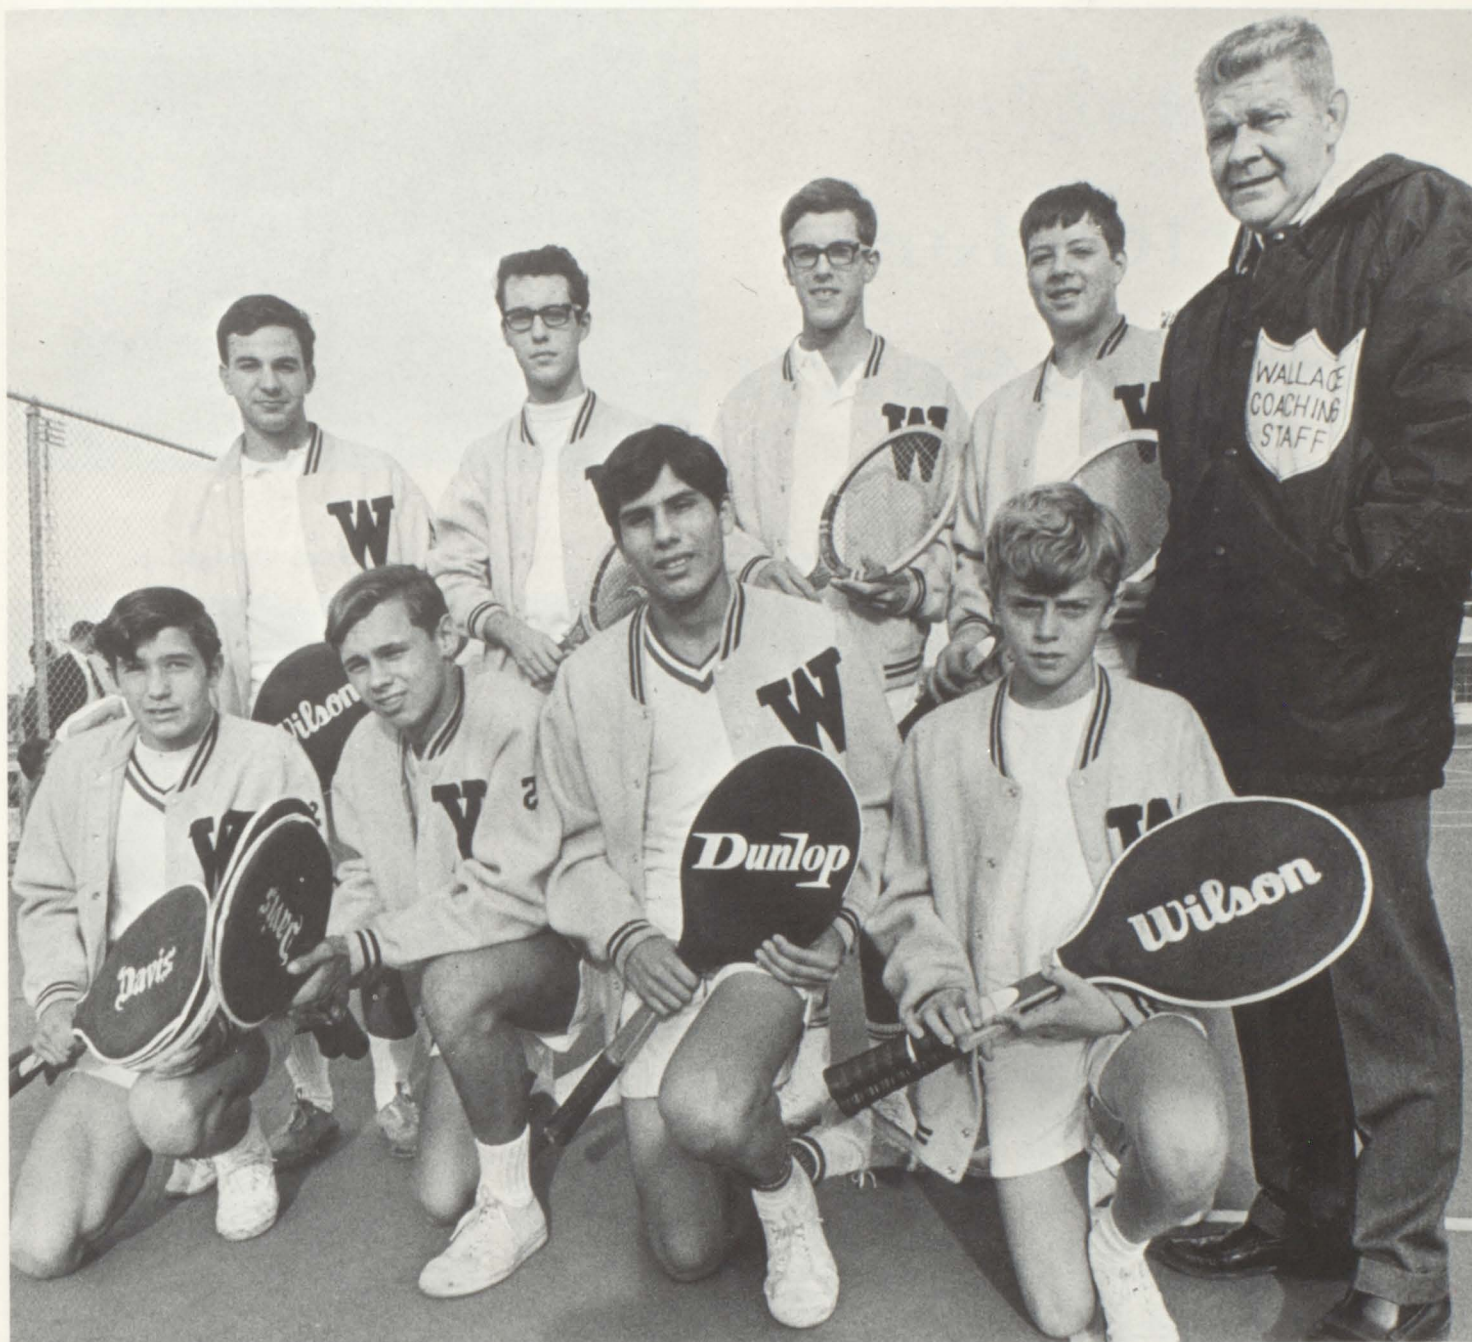

"The 1000 Mile Club" was initiated this year by Harrier Jim Stochel. By running a total of 1,015 miles in the summer, he became the first to join the club established by Coach Troy.

Great Season, 13-1.

First Row: Goad, Korac, Lopez, Tipton. Second Row: Baldea, Leach, Johnson, Regan, Coach Day.

Wallace Netmen compiled a 13-1 record with their only defeat coming at the hands of Horace Mann. This brilliant record can be attributed to the outstanding strength of the singles players, Jim Lopez (24-1), Bob Johnson (16-1), and Russell Goad (19-2). The doubles players also contributed to the overall team effort and consisted of Dave Baldea, Al Korac, Warren Leach, Mark Regan, Victor Rock, and Dave Tipton.

The star of this year's team, Jim Lopez, ranked second in the state high school singles. Lopez was defeated by New Albany's representative (6-0), (6-3) in Indianapolis. The IHSAA Title of Sectional Champ was also awarded to Lopez.

Cagemen Have Tough Luck Season

The courtmen fought to a 2-18 record for the '67-'68 year. In the first game of the year, the Hornets lost to top-ranked E. C. Roosevelt. One of the two games the team won was against Gary Wirt, 67-50. In that game, Denny McDowell led the team in scoring 19 points. Alan Milgi added 13. The Hornets also beat Clark 73-67. Star center, Alan Milgi, pumped in 26, and was further backed by McDowell's 17. Gavit defeated us in a close game 67-63. Once again Milgi and McDowell led the team, scoring 19 respectively.

Against crosstown rival, Andrean, the Hornets lost twice. In the second game, we fought down to the wire losing 73-71. Jim Lopez with 21, and Tom Heins with 18, were top scorers. With Milgi and Lopez tossing 16 and 15, respectively, the Hornets made a spectacular comeback against Mann. In the Emerson game, Milgi copped 31 points in his highest game of the year. The boys played a good game against Bishop Noll, losing in the last quarter. The roundballers had tough luck against Valpo, losing 81-77. In this contest, Milgi scored 27. Gary Roosevelt and Froebel sunk the Hornets, respectively, 99-58, and 116-68.

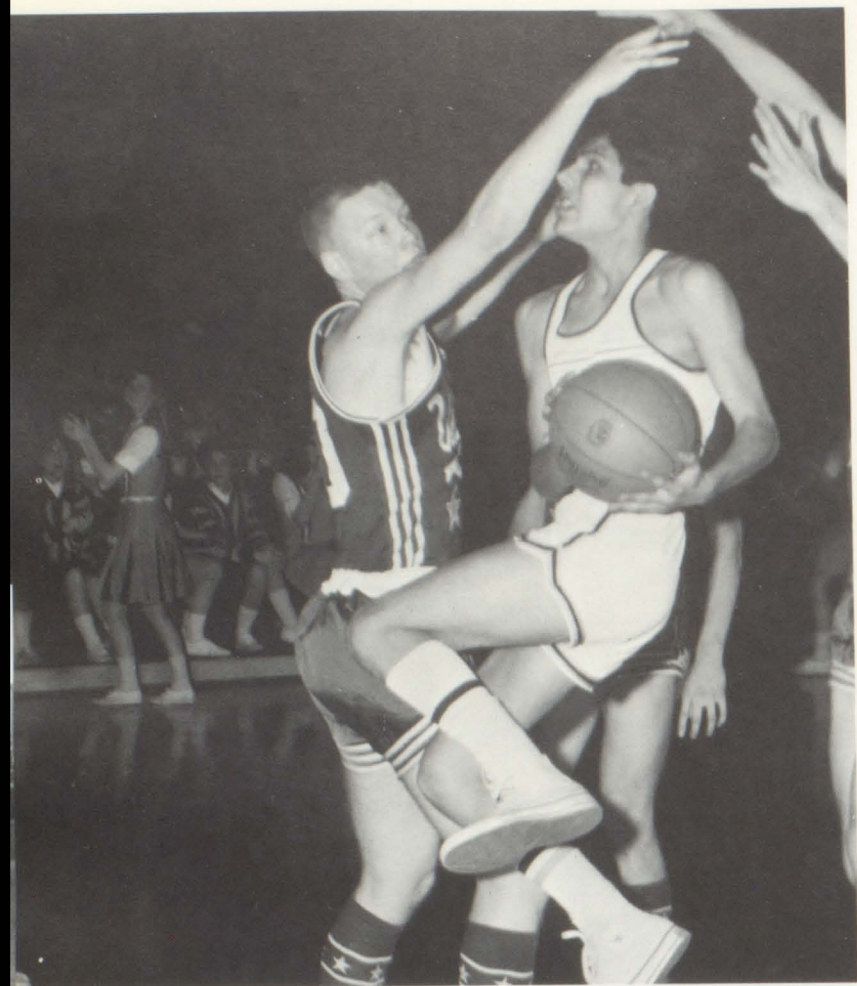

Denny McDowell takes a jump shot.

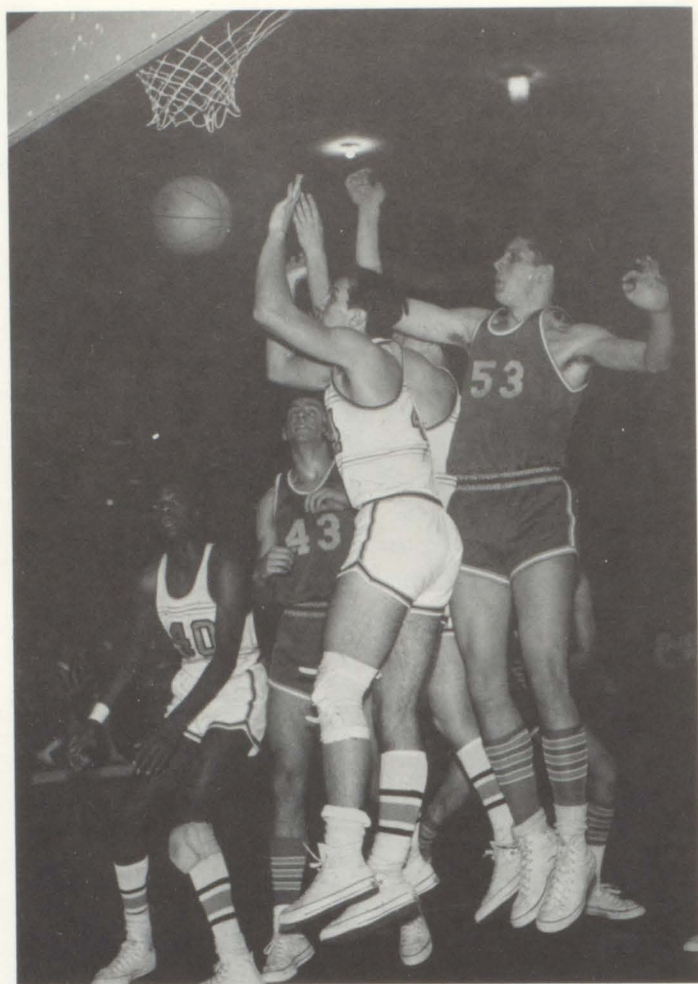

Milgi and Maretich fight for a rebound.

Hobart defeated us in another tight game. Milgi shooting 16, Lopez 15. Milgi and McDowell both hit 19 in a loss to River Forest. In the last game of the regular season, the team ran up against Hammond Tech and the leading scorer in Lake County, Bootsy White. We gave battle the whole game, but White's 34 points were too much to overcome.

In the Sectionals, we drew Emerson and lost 75-56. The leading scorer this year was Alan Milgi with 350 points. Lopez shot 200, McDowell 180, Doug Maretich 155, Heins 145. We want to wish the new varsity coach, Bill Kukoy good luck. He has fine material returning in McDowell, Svihra, and Biggs. The other members of the team were seniors Scott Muniz, Bob Molchan, juniors Ken Biggs and Brian Berkman, and sophomore, Rich Svihra.

Reserves Gain Experience

The Hornets beat Morton 42-33, Clark 51-45, Rensselaer 49-47, Bishop Noll 59-55, Gary Roosevelt 51-35, and Wirt 52-50. The team was led this year by guard Frank Bumbales, center Pete Duggan, and forwards Cleave Hall and Greg Johnson. The other members of the team were John Slosar, Dave Kosto, Mark Mann, Paul Hernandez, and Jesse Bravo. The cagers lost a close game to Hobart 52-50. Mark Mann took a long shot at the gun, but the ball fell short. In the Holiday Tourney, the reserves lost to Horace Mann 63-55.

Coach Kukoy states there has been a fine improvement in Greg Johnson, while Frank Bumbales did an excellent job as floor general of the reserves. This year was a building year of the cagers. With this experience, they may help the varsity next year.

Coach Thomas Ward led this year's Freshman Basketball team to a 7-11 overall record. These young freshmen showed a great desire to win in their pursuit of this highly skilled game. Fundamentals were the basis of instruction for the freshman cagers. They showed great potential in all of this season's contests.

Most games were held in the Main Gym on Saturday mornings. The best effort of the year was displayed against Calumet. The freshmen cagers maligned Calumet by a score of 71-44. Other stellar performances were seen against Edison (67-50), arch rival Horace Mann (41-33), and a surprising victory against Froebel (51-42).

Coach Jennings is looking forward to see these young cagers move up to reserve team positions next year.

A fourth straight city crown and second in Conference were just two of this year's swim team's honors. The team was captained by freestyler, Dennis Yugo, while Pete Cooke in the butterfly was undefeated for the year. Bogie's only loss came in the regular season at the Munster meet. Cooke took an easy first for Conference Champ in the fly, as Bogie, Yugo, and Hills captured seconds in their events. The school pool record was broken this year by Cooke and Bogdanich, who hold a 59.6 and a 1:09.4 in the fly and breast stroke.

Coach Troy had high hopes of sending Cooke and Bogie to the State Meet at Bloomington. The 160 yard medley team of Cooke, Bogdanich, Hills and Hoffman, also showed promise of being State Meet material. Other bright stars from this year's team are seniors Blair Hills, freestyler, Dan Hoffman, backstroker, Rod Weingart, relay, and John Brodar, diver.

Favored Lew Wallace fought off an unexpected strong challenge from Wirt at the tension-packed City Meet. In perhaps the best meet of the season, the mermen copped six firsts and set two records. Cooke set a record in the fly of 1:03.8 over 1:05.3, as Bogie splashed in the breast stroke to a 1:11.0 over 1:13.9.

Next year's prospects include diver Dave Barnes, John Renner, freestyler, Paul Yocum, Cooke's step-in, and Joe Manley, relay. With the experience acquired this year, coupled with the same dedication and interest of this year's team, the Men of Troy should again Battle to Victory.

Overall team efforts produced seven wins and three losses. Individual records were 85 pound Jack Walker, 7-3, 103 pound Dave Watkins 3-7, 120 pound Art Sarris, 8-2, 127 pound co-captain, Ken Sieckman, 7-3, 133 pound co-captain, Mickey Lugar, 8-2, 138 pound Cleon Stutler, 4-6, 145 pound Rich Ban, 6-4, 165 pound Joe Coubal, 8-2, 180 pound Bob Elch, 6-1-1, and heavy weight Conference Champ, Don Shelbourne, 8-1-1. Cindermen Strive For Goals

Vitalone and Horbovetz in dash.

Bad weather once again forced the tracksters indoors early in the year. The team will be coached by Mike Jennings and Ed Troy. The main returning lettermen are: Tom Vitalone, sprinter, Bill Slama, Jim Stochel and Tony Girengti, long distance runners, Terry Costakis, sprinter, and captain Eric Horbevetz.

The team will be well balanced with many senior leaders and strong juniors. The tracksters will begin the season against the Munster Mustangs in their indoor track and gym.

Coach Larry Martin will return for his eleventh season as head baseball coach. This year's assistant coach will be Tom Ward, who will serve as mentor for the reserves. The returning lettermen of the squad are Larry Kester, a hustling infielder and a powerful hitter; Doug Morrone, second baseman; Rich Benjamin, infielder; Tom Bell, first baseman, and an up-and-coming catcher, Andy Zdobyak. The Hornets have fine pitchers in Walt Bogdanich, Dave Cooper, and John Kinder. The season opens on April 3, as the batsmen meet the Merrillville Pirates. The game will be played at the Junedale Senior League field. All home games will be played here. The team will play two more non-Conference games against East Gary and Wirt before starting the Eastern Division. The state meet begins on May 27.

Fore! Hole in one! This coming season will be loaded with not only these active words, but with our active golfers. Returning to this year's team will be senior mainstays Mike Malich, Bob Kryzewski, and Tom Lashenik. Seniors Dave Capp and Bill Espy will throw in the putter to help the team. Up and coming freshmen, Rusty Lashenik and Dave Roberts may bolster squad spirit. We hope the team and Coach Kukoy will see a very prosperous season.

Intramurals Offer Variety

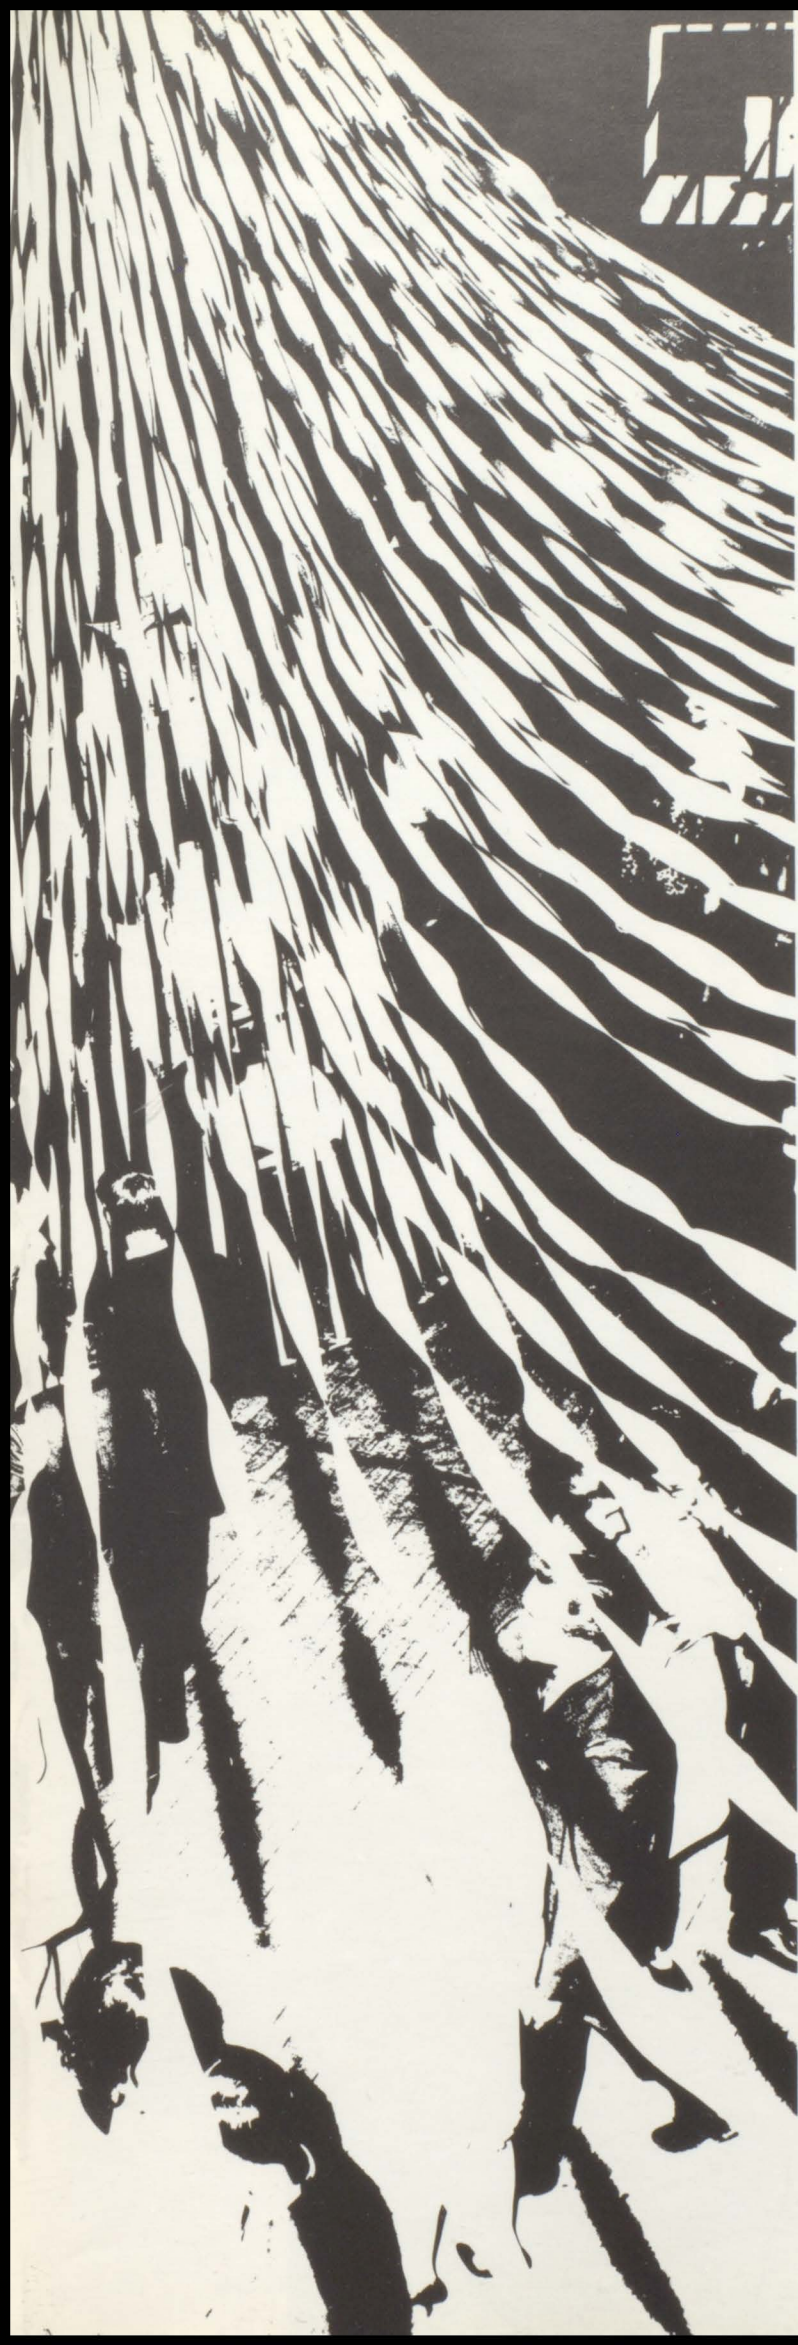

Intramurals offers all boys at Lew Wallace the opportunity to participate in organized sport activities. The organization and responsibility of the program falls on the shoulders of Coach Clarence Day.

The annual activities open with flag football. With the arrival of winter comes swimming, and the most popular intramural activity, basketball. Horseshoes, handball, and softball are popular spring sports. These activities are all held after school at the Lew Wallace or surrounding grade school gyms.

This program allows many boys who are not on varsity teams the chance to participate in various sports. Underclassmen are also allowed to compete against upperclassmen, and offers the opportunity of friendship.

Student Council

Student Council, the link between students and faculty, is the student government of Lew Wallace promoting student participation in school and the general welfare of the student body.

Sponsored by Mr. Orlich and Mr. Chaney, the Council produced a long list of activities this year. October 29, Homecoming night, started the year as students celebrated at the Homecoming dance. Elections followed with the annual Inauguration of both Council officers and representatives and class officers.

A major social function is the Inaugural Ball, the first semi-formal dance of the year. The evening of "Twas the Night Before Christmas" portrayed the Christmas spirit in the colors of mint green, kelly green, and white.

Other activities sponsored by the Council were Christmas baskets, the school calendar, stag dances, sale of game tickets, concession stand management, and sympathy cards and flowers. The Freshman-Sophomore Activity Day and the Junior-Senior Activity Day honored school leaders and awarded good students. The Student Tutoring Service and the new TASK, the Teacher, Administration, Staff, and Kitchen Help Appreciation Banquet and the March of Dimes Charity Drive were more of the important services and activities of the Student Council.

FTA

Lew Wallace FTA members host the Northwestern Indiana Conference of the IFTA.

"Future Teachers of America stands for exploring an interesting career for students who wish to contribute to society through teaching." FTA gives students the experience of working with children and assisting teachers. This year the new Teaching Day on April 5 enabled the students to become teachers.

During the summer Lew Wallace sent nine representatives to the State Fair as promoters of FTA. A formal induction of new members began the school year and was followed by the hosting of the Northern Indiana Convention on October 14. The club's next activities were their Christmas and Valentine's Day parties. The club's candy sales sponsored the FTA trip to the state conference at Shortridge on March 30 where Robert Jarcik, a Lew Wallace senior, presided as president of the IFTA.

Duetscher Verein

A penny scooted across the floor with your nose under an enclosed row of desks is only part of German Club's initiation; eating mustard cake is the rest.

If prospective members survived this ordeal, they were ready for a fun-filled and active year under the supervision of Mr. William Meyer, the new German teacher.

In striving to appreciate and learn more of the German culture and encourage the use of the language members participate in many activities. On December 22 the annual Christmas party was held at the home of Gloria Harmon. This year the Duetscher Verein club members took a field trip into Chicago to see a German film.

Duetscher Verein is now in session.

Auditorium Council

A week of carrying umbrellas, passing toothpicks to teachers, or not talking for a day, or wearing a necklace of paper clips, bandages, and other little items useful in an emergency are a few of the chores students must perform before being admitted to the council. An informal induction of pushing a penny across the floor with your nose and other stunts are imposed on members.

Distributing programs and keeping order at auditorium activities are the jobs of club members. Mrs. Frances Busby is their sponsor and the end-of-the-year party was held at her home.

Biology Club

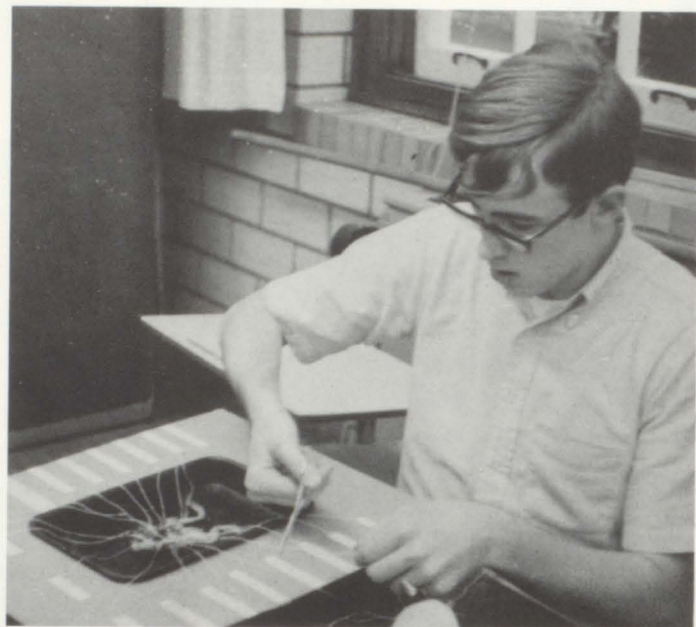

Members prepare for an experiment . . .

Lew Wallace students join the Biology Club for the purpose of furthering their interest in plants, animals, and all phases of biological life.

Meetings are held every first and third Wednesday at 3:15 p.m. in room 8M. under the sponsorship of Miss Lola Lemon.

On January 27, 1968, members of the Biology Club had the opportunity to visit the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago on a field trip. A guest appearance by Mr. Charles Dickerson, owner of Dickerson Drugs, highlighted the January 23 meeting. A Christmas Party, a Valentine Party, and the End-of-the-Year picnic are just a few of the many activities that the members of the Biology Club participate in throughout the year.

A candy sale was held to secure funds to cover the cost of these activities.

Boys' Club

Lew Wallace Boys' Club which promotes leadership, sportsmanship, citizenship, and student life, also finds time for fun. Their many activities include the sale of Hornet buttons, bowling and pool tournaments, cheering block (always noisy and very school-spirited) and field trips to see professional and college games. This year on December 16, the club saw the Chicago Bulls and the Philadelphia Seventy-Niners and on December 20 the Billack Hawks and the Boston Bruins game. One of their fund raising activities was a stag dance on January 19. It was a fun-filled and prosperous year for the Boys' Club, sponsored by Mr. Molchan.

Girls' Club

Service to the school is the motto of the largest club at Lew Wallace, Girls' Club. Membership is open to any girl in school, while the Council consists of a representative and alternate elected from each homeroom.

The traditional Freshman Week, when senior "Big Sisters" introduce Freshman girls to high school life was carried on differently this year; it was completely voluntary. The Freshman Assembly and Style Show, Girl Talk, the Mother-Daughter Tea, and Get Acquainted Day made it a busy week for the freshman girls.

"Beneath the Blue" turned the annual Turnabout into a sea fantasy as couples danced to the music of the We Three Trio. During Christmas vacation the true Christmas spirit was shown by club members as they contributed to the Christmas basket and went caroling at the Old Folks' Home.

In March girls' homerooms competed in the annual Girls' Club Sing with their hilarious skits. The Birthday Potluck created a chance for girls to meet others with the same birth month and many times make new friends. The Teachers' Teas were another example of the services provided by Girls' Club, sponsored by Miss Kouvelas and Miss Novak.

GAA

The Girls' Athletic Association of Lew Wallace or the G.A.A. is not a club, but an intramural program of sports designed to enable girls to participate in after school games. Some of the sports offered are basketball, volleyball, wallball, softball, swimming, and bowling. G.A.A. operates on a point system, but it is not required of a girl to be a member to participate in the intramurals. To be eligible for the annual camp-out, a girl must have earned 300 points during the year from her participation in this different sports. The camp-out provides an opportunity for activities such as games, swimming, cooking, and a banquet. Outstanding leaders and champion teams are awarded trophies and plaques at the banquet. To earn money for this affair, G.A.A. sponsored a stag dance in September.

Under the supervision of Miss Mary Sharp G.A.A. strives to encourage girls' participation in sports activities, not only for its physical benefits, but also for its social rewards. G.A.A. promotes cooperation, responsibility, leadership, and most of all fun. The informal initiation pledges each girl to "promise to uphold the ideals of the Girls' Athletic Association and to do all in my power to make it a better organization."

ROTC

The purpose of the ROTC is to establish the foundation for intelligent citizenship within the student and provides basic military training that will be of benefit to the student and the military services.

The Lew Wallace ROTC Unit was formed in 1942 and has been a part of the instruction ever since. During the past twenty-six years the ROTC has distinguished itself in many ways as can be seen by the many trophies it has been awarded.

As part of the Gary High School Brigade, the third battalion is located at Wallace and consists of a Battalion Headquarters and Companies E and F. This contains a Battalion Commander, Executive Officers, S-1, S-2, S-3, S-4, and a Sergeant Major. In a company there are a Commander, Executive Officer, First Sergeant, two Platoon Leaders, and two Platoon Sergeants. Also located with the battalion is a color guard.

During the three year course students learn about leadership, drill, weapons, first aid, tactics, and American Military History.

Extra-curricular activities available are the Drill and Rifle Teams, which compete for city and state recognition. Individual students also compete against other students and units. The highest award, the Legion of Valor Incorporate Award, is presented to only four cadets in the area. There are many more awards presented by organizations such as the American Legion and the Post Tribune.

Pica Club

Recreation nights on Mondays and Thursdays often turn into informal pizza parties as Pica members and Mr. Mrak, sponsor, met to accomplish projects unable to be done in school and learn more about the graphic arts.

The printing of programs, stickers, posters, game schedules, and calendars was a great service to the school. Pica also kept active by working for other schools and by selling cushions to raise club funds. Visiting the Water Veilt paper mill during the summer, other field trips, and special industrial arts projects were some of Pica's activities. Guest speakers from companies such as the Inter-Chemical Corporation and the Donnelly Company, the world's largest printing company, discussed new concepts and careers in printing.

In addition to their assistance to the librarians members also aid teachers. Auxilia sponsors a Christmas party and Christmas basket. They begin the year with a formal induction in the Senior Library. In their work Auxilians strive to learn the art of library science. This year the members of Auxilia awarded a scholarship to a worthy senior so he might continue his studies of library work in college.

Los Amigos

"¡Hola! ¿Como estas?" is the greeting of Los Amigos club members. The meetings, conducted entirely in Spanish, provide an opportunity for students to use the language, acquaint themselves with more of the Spanish culture, and expand their knowledge of Spanish customs and life.

The most extraordinary event this year was the visit of a foreign exchange student at the Christmas party. The guest spoke on a teenager's life in Argentina and sang folk songs in Spanish and French. Members visited the orphanage in Hammond where they gave the children penatas filled with candy, pennies, and fruit. The club plans to attend the Art Institute to see El Greco's paintings and will end the year with dinner at a Spanish restaurant.

Olympians

A well known cry around the halls of Lew Wallace is "Anyone want to buy a taffy apple?" This is just one of the sales pitches used to raise money for the Olympians, sponsored by Mrs. Shelgren. Members of the club meet twice a month to discuss future club activities and to promote a greater understanding and enjoyment of the Latin culture.

An authentic Roman banquet was the main social event. The cafeteria was gaily decorated in Roman manner, and the club members dressed as Romans, while freshman "slaves" waited on them. Guests, served traditional Roman foods, also enjoyed gladiator and Olympic games.

FHA

FHA, the Future Homemakers of America, strive to promote fellowship among the girls of Lew Wallace and to help make them better future wives and mothers. To fulfill the state qualifications members of the club perform a project each month. Some of the activities of this club are guest speakers, visits to style shows and hair and make-up demonstrations, the annual Christmas party, the Mother Daughter Banquet.

This year FHA will undertake a new project. They plan to feature a fashion show in April that will show the fashion in formal wear for the coming proms. Members also sell cookbooks and have bake sales to support the club.

At their meetings the girls discuss such interesting and currently popular books as A Man for All Seasons under the direction of Miss Dorall, the senior sponsor, and Miss Ryan, the sponsor for juniors and sophomores.

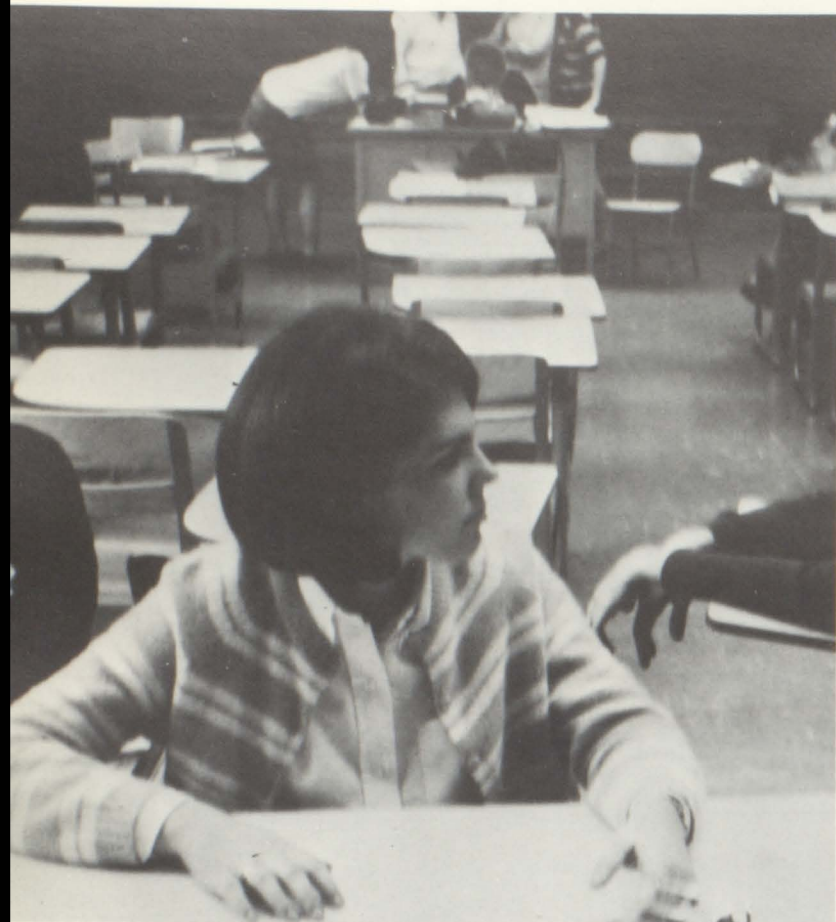

The year started with a formal induction of all new members at the home of Alison Yarnold, and was followed by the annual Christmas potluck at Linda Mitrovich's. Another part of the club's entertainment program was a trip to Chicago to see a production of Mame. Mamma Puntillo's was the scene once again for the annual year-end banquet.

One of the main events of Chess Club this year was the annual tournament with Horace Mann. Unfortunately Lew Wallace was defeated six to one. Another of their activities was a stag dance to raise money. The most important and exciting activity of Chess Club members this year was their participation in the Indiana State Chess Tournament, held in May at Indianapolis. Here Lew Wallace had the opportunity to compete with other Indiana high school chess clubs. The Lew Wallace Chess Club is under the direction of Mr. Perioni.

DECA

DECA, the Distributive Education Clubs of America, present a program of learning while performing on the job training. DECA is a two year course. Juniors receive in school instruction for one credit. Seniors earn three credits for the year, the first for on the job training. The new director, Mr. Peters, instructs his classes in merchandising, retailing, and salesmanship.

In September, DECA attended the Northern Indiana Conference and Leadership Session at South Bend and in November, the Indiana State DECA Convention. On February 29, the Calumet Contest presented a program on public speaking, job interviews, and ad layouts.

To raise money for the club, members sell Peanut Brittle and Fruit Cakes. This year, the DECA Club, in conjunction with our ROTC, sent fruit cakes to our soldiers in Viet Nam.

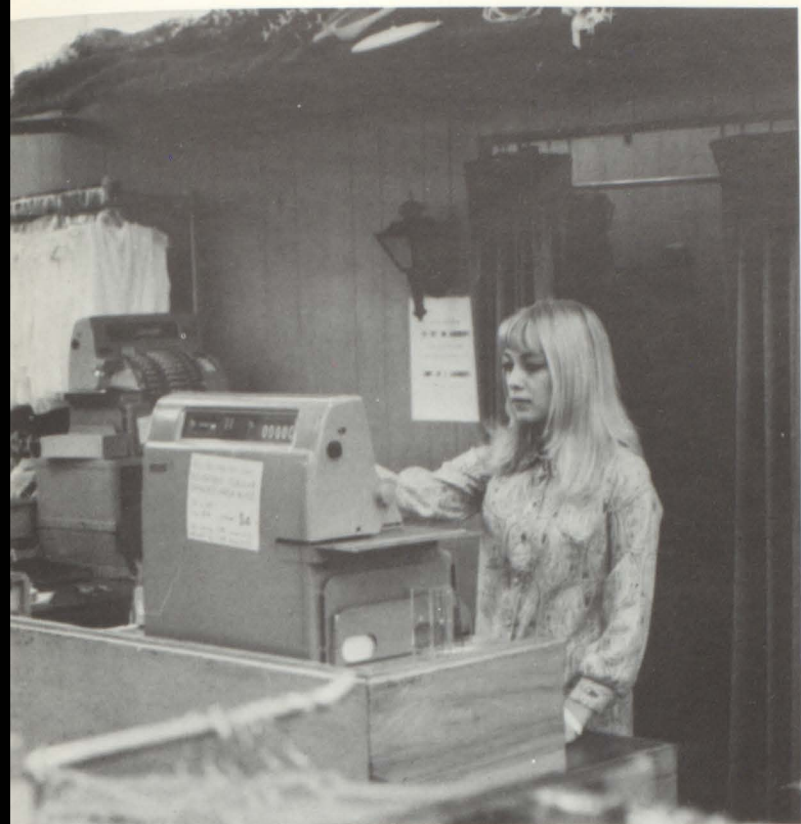

DECA also provides entertainment. Members have parties at Christmas, St. Patrick's Day, Valentine's Day, and at the end of the year.

English

Although seemingly simple, the activities of reading, writing, listening, and speaking are important activities that we take for granted every day of our lives. In future years, we will realize how our basic everyday communication with the people around us evolved from the English education received at Lew Wallace.

During our freshman year we are introduced to such novels as Great Expectations and Ivanhoe and various short stories. Equally important is all the time we spend on grammar.

Studying two diversified characters as Silas Marner and, Julius Caesar offers us a chance to examine the personalities of human beings. We also have the chance to study our own character in depth when we write autobiographies.

Spending so much time in the library and organizing notecards proves to be a tedious task to every junior. The curriculum is improved, however, when we read Giants In the Earth and Moby Dick.

A true test of senior maturity is involved when we read Tale of Two Cities. Macbeth, one of Shakespeare's finest plays, is read and evaluated line by line, and we discover that basic man has not changed much through the centuries.

Social Studies

World History is a broad historical survey of ancient civilization to modern times. Rapid progression takes place from tyrannical rulers to present forms of democracy and also from social equality among peoples to dictatorships.

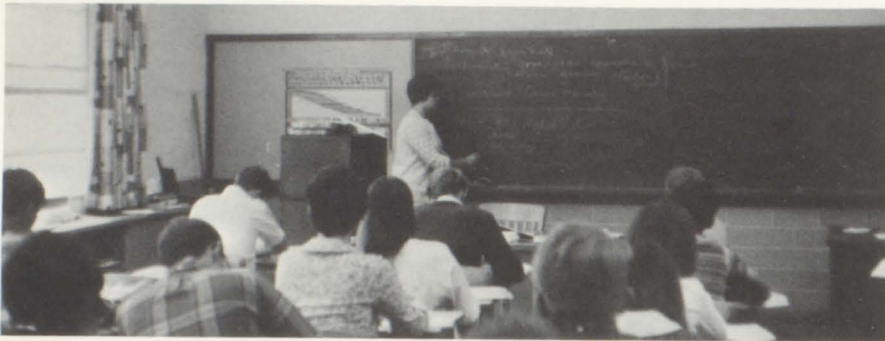

World Geography acquaints the student with land formation and the locale of various territories. It enables a student to visualize where current news is occurring.

U.S. History, a detailed study of our country, enables a student to understand and appreciate the forces that helped establish our heritage and principles of liberty and justice.

In Economics, Government, World Problems, and Psychology discussions range from the way our government is organized to the increasing involvement in Viet Nam, and from the present standard of living to mental health.

The subjects involve intense group discussions which allow the individual to be critical of others' opinions. With the impending national election students are able to observe and see history happening.

Science

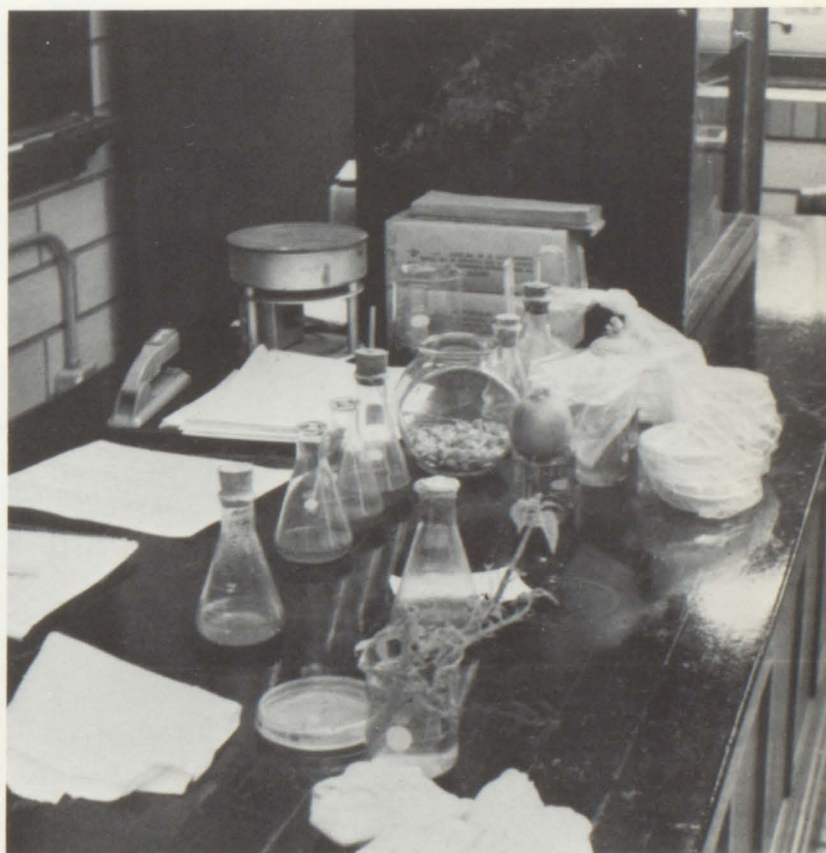

Modern technology depends a lot on the basic education obtained in high school. Lew Wallace provides a very good background in this field. It begins with a course in bio-physics or biology. Collecting insects, dissecting animals and working in the lab played important parts in biology, later more advanced scientists proceed to chemistry and study atomic composition, work on lab reports, and learn to find the answers to complicated problems. In general, students are taught to think scientifically. The highest level of knowledge that can be obtained in high school in this field is physics. Students who take this course study accelerations, velocity and energy. After taking these courses, students are equipped with sufficient knowledge to move on to advanced technical scientific studies.

Miss Rzepka demonstrates the fundamental principles of Algebra.

Mathematics

So very essential to our advancement in a progressive world, Lew Wallace's Math Department renders a challenge for future mathematicians. Each student must strive to understand and to use the knowledge acquired during his high school years.

This exact science begins with General Math or Algebra I. Generally, sophomores acquire the basic facts about geometric figures and learn the steps in solving problems through theorems. Juniors proceed to more advanced problem solving in Algebra II. The most accelerated courses taken by seniors are Trigonometry and Math IV. The subject matter covers the many facets of co-sines and tangents.

For those with little interest or capacity for mathematics, there are opportunities for receiving a general knowledge in such courses as Applied and General Math. These are of great value for those who find the other math courses too difficult.

Recently with the computer breakthrough, a great opportunity is offered to those students who participate in the Computer Math Program.

Fine Arts

A challenge to the creative student is provided by the various cultural courses of art, drama and music.

In art a creativeness is given its utmost test. Pottery, clay, charcoal sketchings, and paintings are just a few of the many art forms students work with. Reward comes when the finished product is completed and the fledgling artist can recall the hard work put into it.

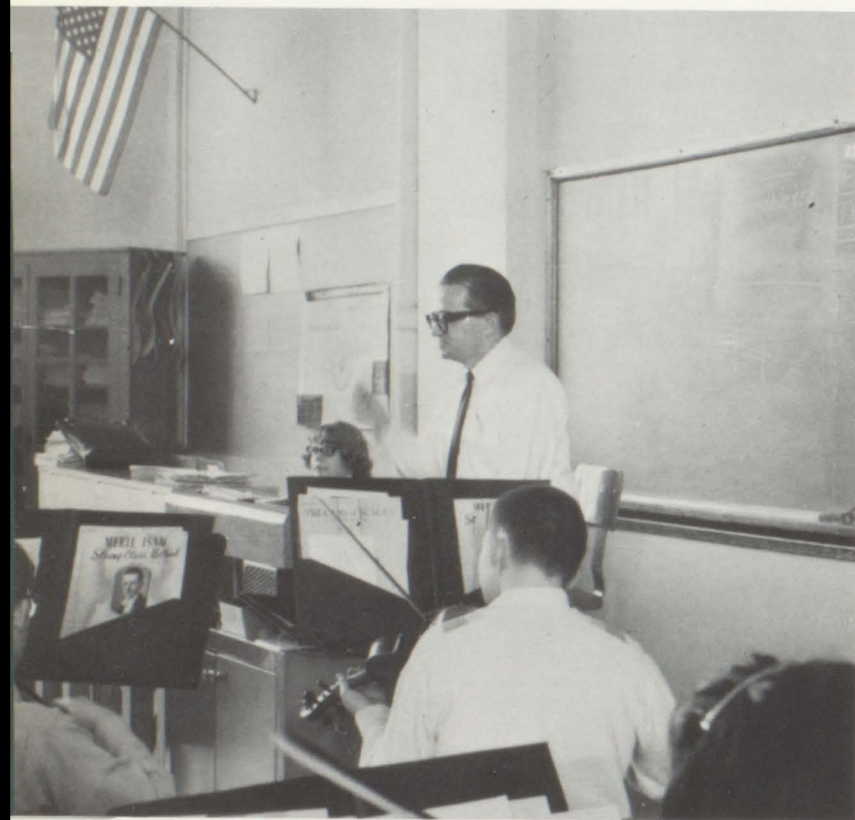

Students in band, orchestra, and choir spend many long hours striving for perfection. In their performances, though, this proves to be evident. A great variety is offered in these courses from classical lyrics to the modern musical. The development of talent is important in these courses.

Classes in drama, speech and stage crafts are offered. Here the students learn the techniques of preparing impressive stage productions. Speech gives the needed confidence to a student when he speaks in front of a crowd. Lew Wallace prides itself on having one of the oldest speech departments in Gary.

Photography also challenges the mind because the quality of the finished print reflects the creativity of the photographer.

Practice makes perfect.

Mr. Burelli displays his craftsmanship at making pottery.

Proofreading is important.

Business

From typing and shorthand to bookkeeping and Distributive Education, Lew Wallace prepares its business students for a variety of futures. Specific skills such as accuracy, speed, and neatness can be acquired in these courses. The skills are available, but the student must work hard toward the goal of attaining them.

Rushing to meet the manuscript deadlines, always making sure your eraser is handy, and striving each day for a one word gain in speed will be remembered by all typing students. Motivated to increase typing experience, students can proceed to a second year where they work further with legal papers, business letters and manuscripts.

Checking and rechecking your columns is something which each bookkeeping student must become accustomed, in order to learn the basic fundamentals of financing and accounting.

Receiving on the job training is a privilege given to all Distributive Education students, because it provides an outlet for them to apply knowledge obtained in the classroom.

Distributive Education raises a discussion.

Typing II students review techniques.

Nicky Gordon sets her margins.

Physical Education

Physical education, safety, health and driver's education are essential courses in the development of a well-rounded individual teenager.

Many students participate in vigorous exercises: swimming, wallball, wrestling, baseball, softball, volleyball, and in the process learn the importance of teamwork and sportsmanship. The individual contributes whatever abilities he may possess toward a combined team effort.

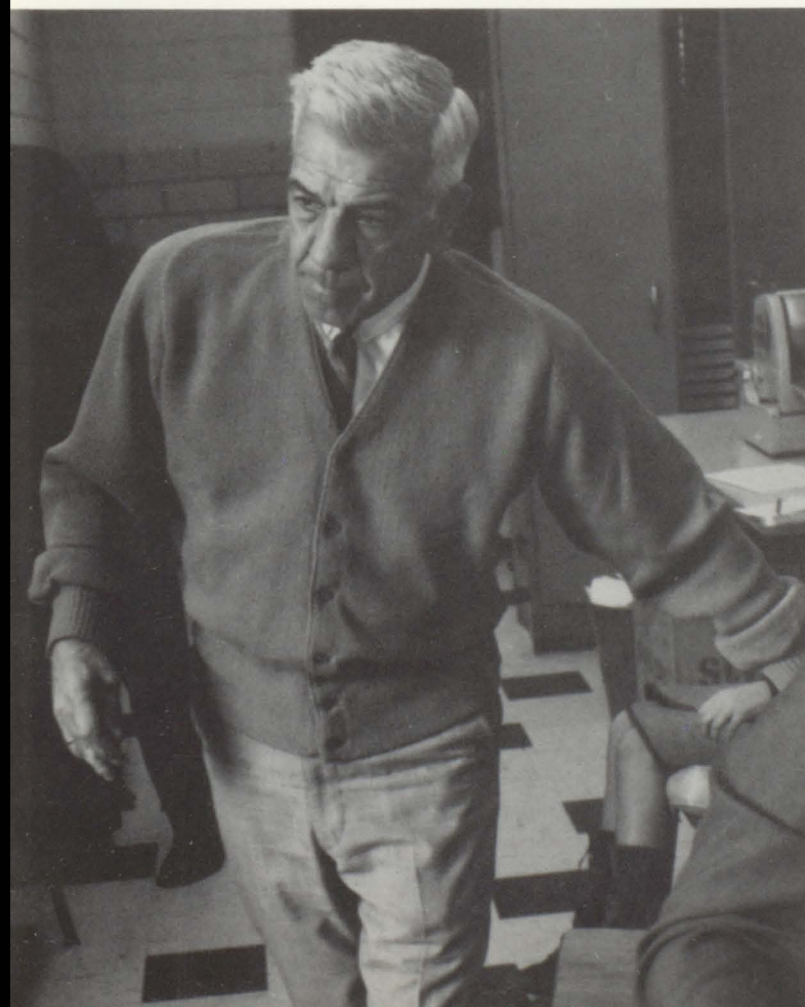

A great help to many beginning drivers is an optional six-weeks driver's training course. Under the direction of an experienced instructor, the student learns to handle automatically geared cars competently. Many students will recall the nervousness felt at the beginning of the course, and be proud of the skill acquired.

An Indiana requirement for graduation, safety provides some background as to the handling of an emergency. First aid, shock treatment, and artificial respiration are among the subjects that are a must in this "course." The participants in these courses are rewarded with physical fitness, mature emergency action and the responsibility of defensive driving.

Students learn the movements for modern dance.

Group discussions, an inevitable part of gym.

Home Economics

Many courses are offered here at Lew Wallace to help prepare the future homemaker of tomorrow. Classes in cooking, sewing, home nursing, and anything that improves one's personal self are taught. Students learn to take pride in their appearance by making the clothes they want, and they learn to appreciate the time involved in meal preparation. Their goal is creative accomplishment, and once it is attained, a feeling of fulfillment accompanies.

Teacher-pupil relationship is close.

Statistical data is important in classwork.

Lecture provides lasting impression.

Cooperative effort produces an appetizing result.

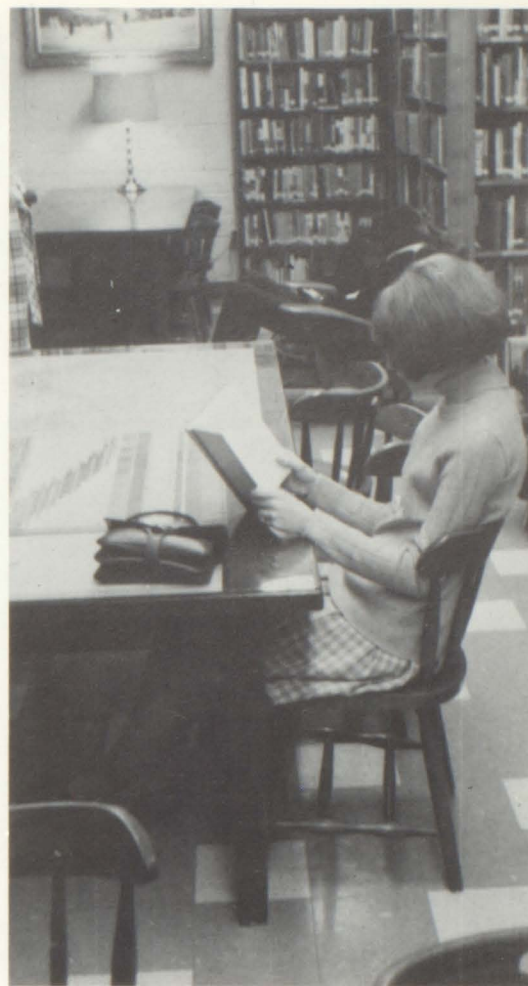

Students participate in radio programing.

Communications involves conversation as well as the written word.

Students learn techniques through listening.

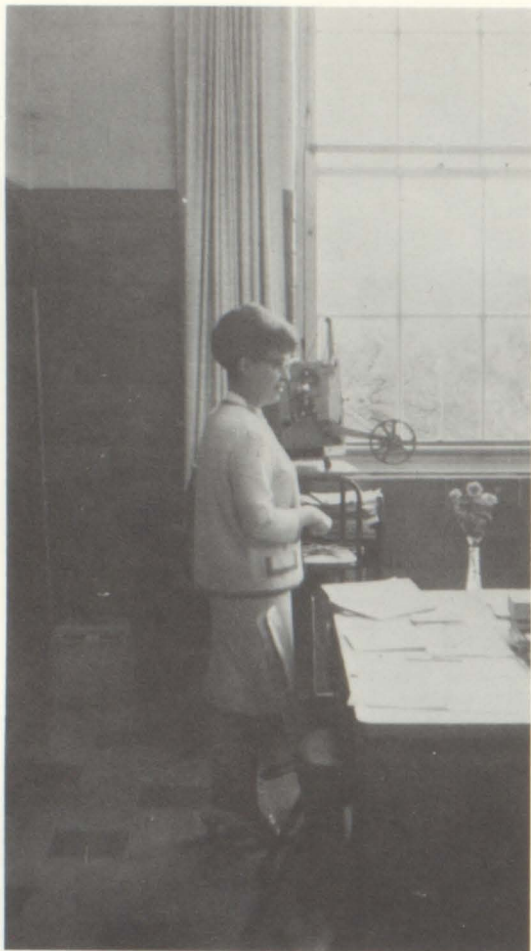

Research comes before significant communication.

Communications

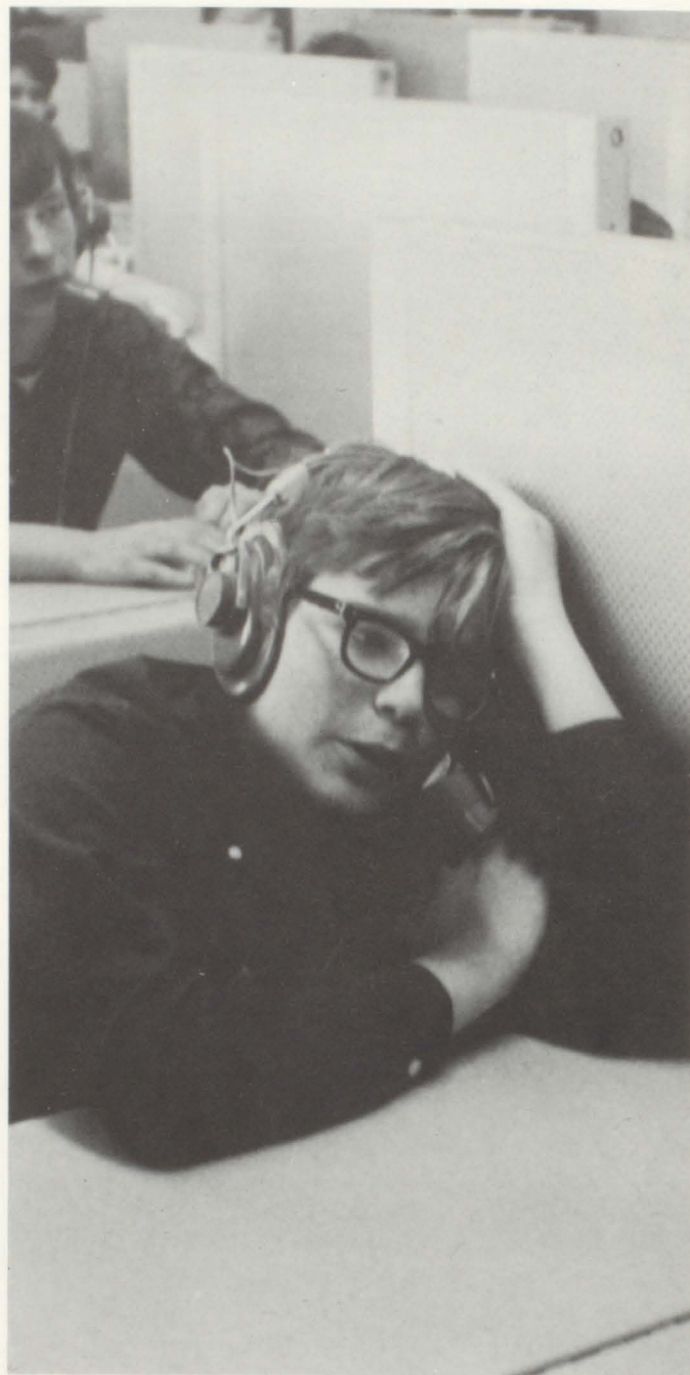

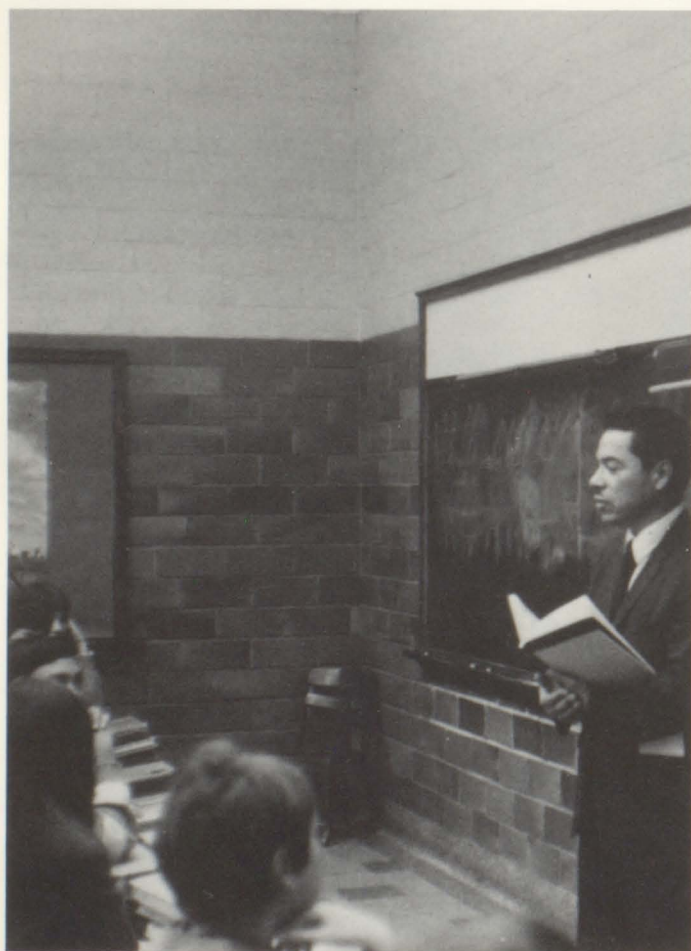

Lew Wallace is proud of being able to boast that it is the only school in Gary that operates its own radio station, WGVE. This course, an experience in itself, enables a student to take an integral part in the wide world of communication. Besides acting as directors, announcers, and writers, students also broadcast basketball games, educational programs, and musical drama. Even if students do not go into the field of radio later in life, they will always have the satisfaction of being part of a unique team.

If a student ever needs a quiet place to study, two libraries provide the needed resources for research. Communicating knowledge to students, these libraries help them meet some of the demands imposed by our advancing world.

Foreign Language

Foreign language students are able to visit France, Spain, Germany, and Rome only vicariously through their studies.

The classical language, Latin, helps a student better understand his English grammar and vocabulary. Besides learning the fundamentals of the language, students also learn about Roman culture and social life.

The romance languages, French and Spanish, involve more than just writing. It is also very important for students to converse freely in these two languages. Dialogues in class provide the assistance needed to attain this goal.

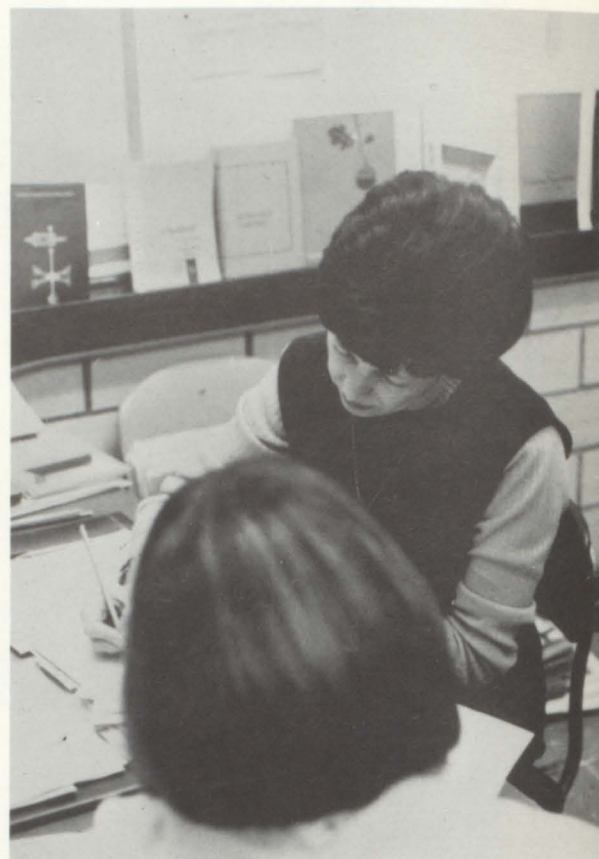

The languages that have a more guttural sound, Russian and German, also stress the written and oral part of the language. Both of these languages are relatively new, being introduced in just the past few years.

The language courses are usually taken for two years and more proficient students can advance further. The study of both the classical and modern languages bring students closer to their foreign neighbors.

Guidance

Helping us to become more acutely aware of our uncertain future is one of the guidance counselors' tasks. They analyze the results of standardized tests, school marks, and, most important, individual interests in trying to help a student decide on a technical school, job, college, or the armed services. This is done in the senior interview.

The underclassmen are also assisted when it comes time to plan their programs in the spring. Special attention is given to make sure they are maintaining the needed credits for graduation. Many students will remember the help their counselors gave them when it was most needed . . . to help us to adjust . . . to encourage us . . . and sometimes just to be a good listener.

A section dedicated to YOU

The face in the crowd.

Don Shelbourne, president

Witnessing our last homecoming gave us a sense of direction for the year of '68 . . . The realization of this being our last year made it all the more poignant. We then placed our trust in the newly elected class officers. The thrill of having professional photos, ordering calling cards, measuring for caps and gowns, anxiously anticipating the Senior Prom, and posing for our front lawn pictures; all the little things that all seniors before us went through. So different now because of one simple word. It is no longer their year but our year. So different now, because it is no longer.

These four years saw great changes in individuals. We learned to look to the future, to brighter prospects, but we have learned not to forget the past. It is from this past that we come to the present and are able to make of our future what we want. Who can forget the friendships made . . . and broken, the tears of joy . . . and of sadness, the feeling of winning . . . and the feeling of losing, knowing we succeeded . . . knowing we tried.

Jim Stochel, vice president

MARK FLUD

I want to know, when day is done, that life has been worth living . . .
that I have brought somebody joy through kind, unselfish giving.

I want to feel, when evening falls,
and shadows quickly lengthen,
that I have made somebody glad,
some weakness I have strengthened.

I want to know, that come what may;
I've left some cheer and gladness;
I want to know, that on my way,
I've banished someone's sadness.

I want to feel, at close of day,
that someone's cares were lighter;
because of kindness I have done,
may someone's life be brighter.

As juniors, we are finally achieving a long worked for goal; we are upper-classmen. We approach this year with some apprehension, because it is not too clear what is expected of us. Along with the prestige we find the courses becoming harder and homework hours longer. Many of us will never forget the final hours spent with heavy-lidded eyes, rushing to turn their term topics in on time.

A climax of our third year of high school is the Junior Prom. The hours spent on money-making projects seem long, but it all seems worth it, when we are able to go and see the results at this semi-formal affair.

Having more say in club activities, becoming more actively involved in sports, taking the self-evaluating PSAT's, and setting up committees for our prom, all helped to make us more responsible individuals. We know now there is only one more step up the ladder, and the responsibilities learned this year will be put into action as we become the seniors of next year, the Class of '69.

Sophomores

Paul Hernandez; vice president

"In between" is the correct word to use when describing sophomores. We certainly were no longer "green" freshmen and yet had not captured the distinction of upperclassmen.

Reviewing our lives up to the present time in our autobiographies recalled to mind many memories for us. Being introduced to new theorems and postulates never ceased to perplex us, but we worked diligently to understand geometry. We found the courses a kind of challenge, and we in turn tried to meet that challenge.

We will never forget how we trembled with excitement when our class rings came, because we now possessed an outward symbol of the loyalty felt for our school.

The tenth year of our schooling was brought to a close with our Sophomore Class Party. We are left with two more years of high school. Two years in which to continue our success or strive for greater heights. Two years to which we look forward with great anticipation.

Freshmen

Not knowing what awaited us in these four years, but more important this year, we as freshmen were unsure, unsteady and awkward. Searching unfamiliar halls for our rooms and being made the object of light hearted fun by the upperclassmen made us constantly aware of our "newness." We were the "freshies."

However, we did not let this keep us from getting in the "swing of things." Sure we found the courses like Algebra I and Biology harder than before but this is high school isn't it? Joining clubs, actively participating in sports, making our Freshman Party a success, and keeping our grades up were the only ways we could show everyone that we, too, would also do our school proud and carry on that torch passed to us as future upperclassmen.

THE PLACE

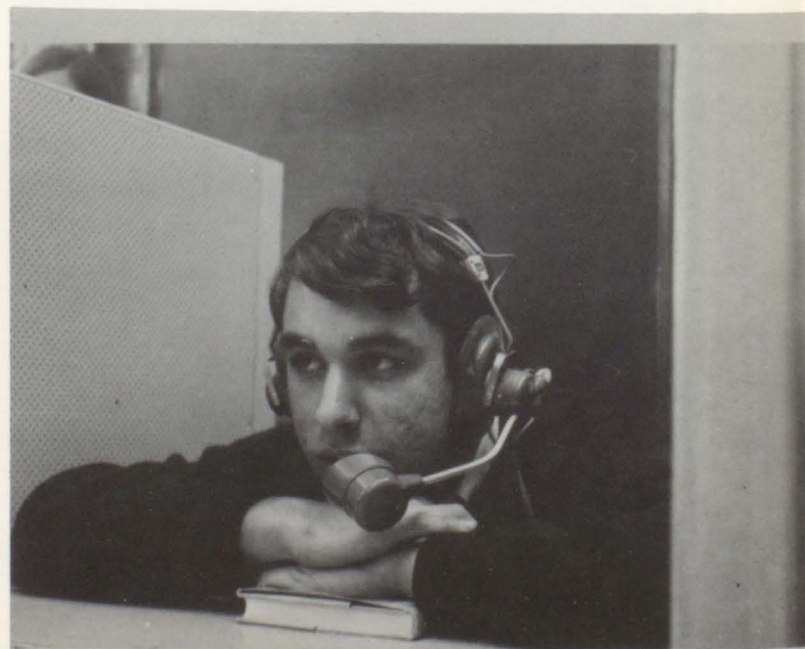

*Corridors buzzing with voices ...
Briefly exclaiming latest news ...
Four minutes time ...
Hurrying to class ...
Break in schedule ...
Another class begins ...
The halls are again still ...
Traveling through inclement weather ...
Tramping between buildings ...
Portables, west and east buildings ...
Links to the main ...
Shade of surrounding trees ...
Forming lacework ...
On the ground below ...
Knowing there is a place ...
Holding individual memories.*

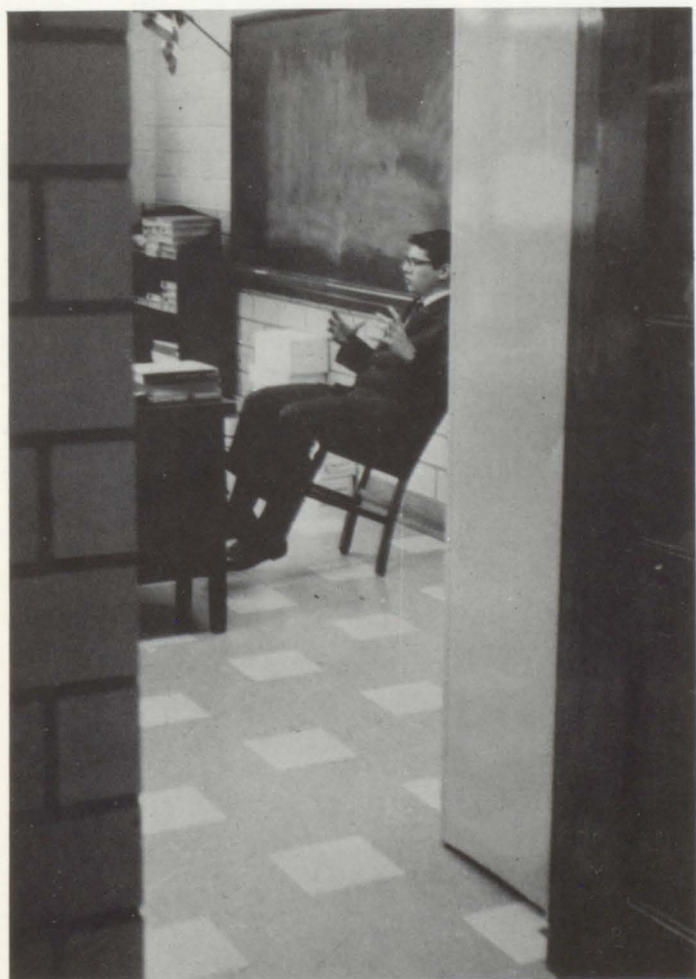

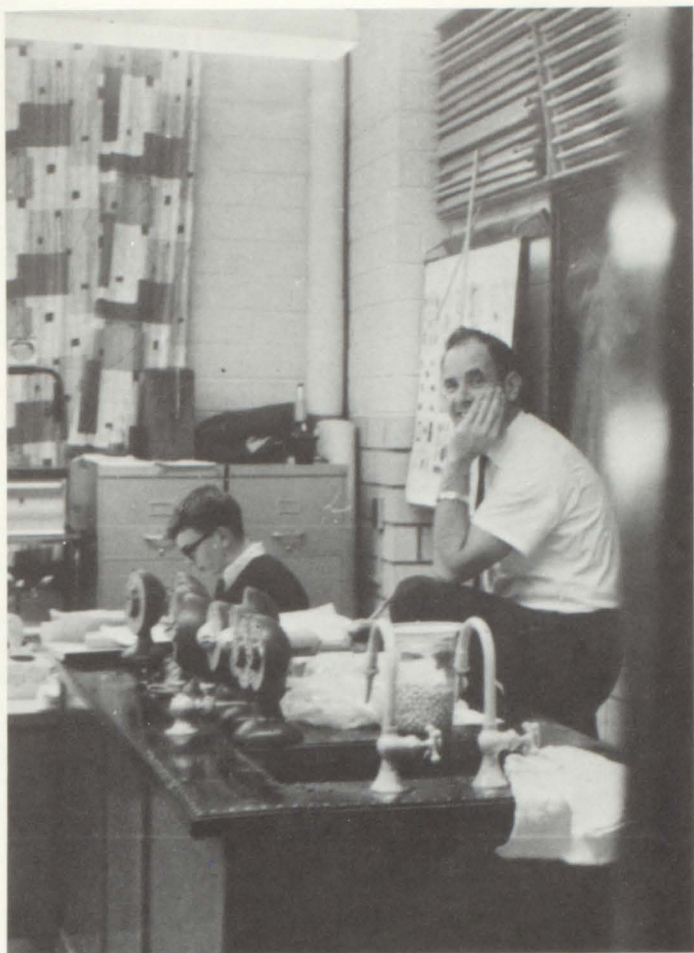

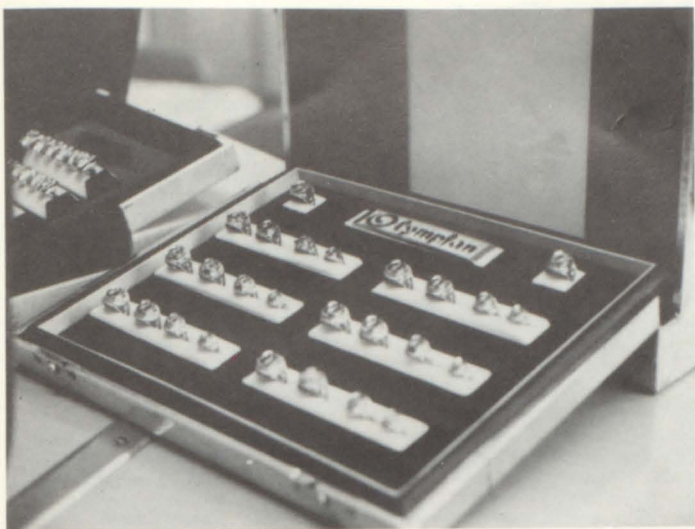

THE PEOPLE

*Perhaps, the most valuable memory held . . .
The people . . .
The many different individuals . . .
That we have come to know . . .
Helping us to mature . . .
To become aware . . .
Through the help of an instructor or friend . . .
People changing our lives . . .
And they themselves reflecting change . . .
Their faces . . .
Their words . . .
Unsteady . . . unsure . . .
But constantly moving onward . . .
The people we will not soon forget.*

THE EVENTS

One way we learn about people is through events . . .
Finding people different after school hours . . .
Perhaps, knowing people as they are . . .
Singing together in a hootenanny . . .
Competing in what we excel . . .
Communicating through our broadcasts . . .
Toward a common goal . . .
The hard work . . .
The "good times" that come as a result . . .
Allowing sports to become an integral part . . .
Events we participate in . . .
Spotting "your ring" from a selection . . .
Events always expected . . .
And too soon . . .
One day . . .
Only remembered.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

1968 was a year of sharing, a year of individual worth. The '68 Quill and Blade staff struggled many hours to produce a tasteful and prompt yearbook. To accomplish our goal required the donation of time, energy, and ideas of many people. This struggle bound many of us closer together, a bond possible only through hard work, respect, and admiration for one another.

It is at this time of appreciating individual worth, that we would especially wish to thank Mr. Frank Woschitz of Paragon Press for his help, confidence, and supplies. Without his constant prodding and endless supply line, the '68 Quill and Blade would still be in publication. We also would like to extend our thanks to Mrs. Katherine Welsh, Dale Giolas, Bob Elch, Miss Dorothy Jaclack, Miss Millie Conwell, Mr. Richard Benton House of Root Photographers; Frank's Store for Men, and the many patrons and advertisers who placed their faith in us.

Special thanks are extended to Tony, and Helen, the West Building night janitress for her kindness. The staff also expresses deepest gratitude for the confidence and encouragement shown us by Mr. Vorwald, Mr. Smith, Mr. Black, and the office staff.

I, individually, as well as the staff, would especially like to thank our advisor, Mr. Richard O'Curran, for his help, confidence, and Irish luck in meeting deadlines. To the parents of the staff members, we thank them for the use of their cars, as well as for their understanding in missed meals, lowered grades, and temper tantrums.

A well-organized staff works as a whole, yet individually. My thanks expressed to staff members Debbie Martin, Sharon Renner, Della Banks, Mike Kurowski, Cheryl Stegnach, and Pat Sokolowski for their extraordinary donation of time to a most worthwhile cause.
